ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER FOR DETENTION SERVICES (ACS)

Duties and Responsibilities

This is a management class of positions.

Under executive direction, with the widest latitude for the exercise of independent initiative and judgment, provides overall management and supervision of secure and non-secure juvenile detention. Performs related work.

Examples of Typical Tasks

Manages and supervises the management of all secure and non-secure detention facilities and providers.

Advances the division's mission and vision through the development of policies and procedures regarding secure and non-secure detention, recruitment and hiring, staff development and promotion of personnel, budget administration and the development and implementation of new technologies.

Leads the planning, development and implementation of critical improvements to detention programming and services, including the creation of a classification system and the planning and implementation of a program model for juvenile offenders in secure detention.

Oversees the development of a continuum of services and supervision that enhance public safety by reducing recidivism and encouraging youth development.

Manages and supervises less restrictive alternatives to secure detention in group homes through contracts with not-for-profit organizations.

ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER FOR DETENTION SERVICES (ACS) (continued)

Examples of Typical Tasks (continued)

Spearheads efforts to improve service delivery models around mental health, health, case management, family engagement, and recreational and vocational skill building programming.

Manages detention services in compliance with all Federal, State and local regulations and guidelines.

Collaborates with system stakeholders, including judiciary, attorneys, city agencies, advocates, community groups and others to promote an effective and responsive juvenile justice system.

Reviews and oversees detention staff resources and maintains proper staff deployment.

Represents the Deputy Commissioner of the Division of Youth and Family Justice (DYFJ) at meetings and conferences concerning policy and operational issues and agency activities.

Performs liaison functions relating to the operations of detention services with Federal, State, local and not-for-profit organizations.

Provides supervision to secure and non-secure executive staff.

Responsible for review and preparation of administrative reports.

Undertakes other duties as assigned by the Deputy Commissioner for DYFJ.

ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER FOR DETENTION SERVICES (ACS) (continued)

Qualification Requirements

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college and four years of satisfactory experience of a nature to qualify for the duties and responsibilities of the position, at least 18 months of which must have been in an administrative, managerial, consultative or executive capacity or supervising personnel performing activities related to the duties of the position; or

2. A combination of education and/or experience equivalent to "1" above. However, all candidates must have the 18 months of administrative, managerial, executive, consultative or supervisory experience described in "1" above.

Direct Lines of Promotion

None. This class of positions is classified in the Non-Competitive Class.