ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS SUPPORT SERVICES (ACS)

Duties and Responsibilities

This is a management class of positions.

Under executive direction, with the widest latitude for the exercise of independent initiative and judgment, manages key administrative and logistical resources including, facility maintenance, records management, mailroom services, transportation, health and safety, mailroom services and emergency management. Performs related work.

Examples of Typical Task

Acts as the chief and confidential advisor to the Associate Commissioner for agency emergencies, operations, and logistical support.

Directs and leads large operational units and oversees units' budget administration operations.

Participates in the development and implementation of both strategic and operational policies and plans to improve efficiencies and service the divisions' operational units.

Leads an administrative/supervisory team responsible for building services and facility maintenance, records management, mailroom, transportation, occupational health and safety and emergency management.

Provides input in the development of strategic plans and implements comprehensive security strategies and countermeasures to secure agency managed facilities and resources throughout the five boroughs of New York City.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS SUPPORT SERVICES (ACS)
(continued)

Examples of Typical Tasks (continued)

Implements operational and strategic planning for the agency's records management and mailroom services units.

Provides supervision to staff coordinating the workplace violence prevention program and engages in ensuring healthy and safe working conditions for staff members assigned to various offices across all boroughs.

Leads Continuity of Operation (COOP) contingency planning and 24-hour operations during emergencies.

Directs daily custodial and facility maintenance services for all administrative sites and 24-hour building operation services at the Children's Center and two juvenile detention centers.

Maintains and leads logistical coordination and support for special ACS family and children programs to benefit all New York City communities.

Represents the Associate Commissioner at meetings and conferences concerning policy and operational issues and agency activities for all operational units.

Responsible for review and preparation of administrative reports.

Undertakes other duties as assigned by the Associate Commissioner.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS SUPPORT SERVICES (ACS)
(continued)

Qualification Requirements

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college and four years of satisfactory experience of a nature to qualify for the duties and responsibilities of the position, at least 18 months of which must have been in an administrative, managerial, consultative or executive capacity or supervising personnel performing activities related to the duties of the position; or

2. A combination of education and/or experience equivalent to "1" above. However, all candidates must have the 18 months of administrative, managerial, executive, consultative or supervisory experience described in "1" above.

Direct Lines of Promotion

None. This class of positions is classified in the Non-Competitive Class.